Alice Spring Town Council Centralian Citizen Awards Eligibility Guidelines

Criteria and Eligibility

The Centralian Citizen Awards is an initiative of the Alice Springs Town Council Australia Day Coordinating Committee. These Awards will be presented at the Australia Day Flag Raising and Citizenship Ceremony on Friday, 26 January 2018, to be held at the Civic Centre Courtyard.

Centralian Citizen of the Year Award

The Centralian Citizen of the Year Award recognises a person who has made a noteworthy contribution during the current year or given outstanding service over a number of years to their community. To be eligible for the Award the nominee must be an Australian citizen and 30 years or older on 26 January 2018.

Young Centralian Citizen of the Year Award

The Young Centralian Citizen of the Year Award recognises a person who has made a noteworthy contribution during the current year or given outstanding service over a number of years to their community. To be eligible for the Award the nominee must be an Australian citizen and between the age of 14 and 29 years on 26 January 2018.

Volunteer of the Year Award

The Volunteer of the Year Award recognises a person who exemplifies the spirit of community service, serves as a role model, improves the overall quality of life of fellow residents and works tirelessly without recognition behind the scenes.

The Award is open to an Australian citizen who;

- Performs a service to the community
- Demonstrates commitment to volunteering
- Inspires others to engage in volunteer services
- Demonstrates initiative, leadership and creativity in his/her services to others
- Overcomes barriers to volunteering, such as disability, family or school commitments

Centralian Senior Citizen of the Year Award
